Roomex is the travel booking platform built for the mobile workforce

Do your staff build skyscrapers, manage a suite of shopfronts or check up on assembly lines around the country? Are they on the road more than they're at their desk? Roomex is built for you.

We created Roomex for the Travel Managers, Bookers, Assistants, and Travellers who are tired of booking travel.

If you spend too much time navigating countless hotel websites, updating Excel sheets, and logging expense claims, we've got the solution. Our platform enables you to book, pay, and report on all of your accommodation, travel, and expenses in one place. We cut out the tedious work of workforce travel to save you time and money.

Don't take our word for it...

Applus⁺

“Roomex offers everything we require to travel both domestically and internationally. They provide a smart, professional, and efficient platform whilst still tailoring their service to our individual needs.

Wickes

“Roomex has been a great partner to us by providing an easy to use, scalable, and reliable platform that really helps us to better manage our travel expenses.

vital

“Roomex have provided us with a very simple to use platform that meets our needs for our operatives, and has significantly reduced the end-to-end processing time... For us, [Roomex is] highly recommended.

Looking to book accommodation for a project, or a space for your next event?

Roomex's dedicated Projects & Meetings team are available to help you book your next trip. Our experts specialise in booking group rates for 9+ people per night, setting up project rates for crews, and finding suitable accommodation for long stays.

Our team will source, negotiate, contract, and book accommodation and meeting packages designed for you.

RoomexAnalytics provides visibility and control of all Crew, Project, Long Stay and meeting bookings.

Roomex will provide one consolidated invoice, outlining the breakdown of spend by booking or project.

We will manage special requests like meals, parking requirements, and flexible check-in times.

Book and pay for train travel with a Roomex account

Roomex partners with Trainline to enable businesses to book train travel throughout the UK, with detailed reporting plus the option to receive a single invoice for accommodation and travel. Cut out the expense claims and complex data consolidation with Roomex.

Book hotel and train travel for yourself or your staff

Include train travel on a regular Roomex invoice

Download tickets directly to Apple or Android device

Booking approvals ensure all trips are checked and approved

Eliminate out-of-pocket expenses and claims for train journeys

Find the most cost-effective routes with split ticketing

Carbon Reporting

Roomex has partnered with Squake to offer customers information on their carbon emissions for each individual booking. This information can be used to provide your business with internal reports on carbon emissions, inform their sustainability initiatives or even calculate the cost of carbon credits to cover their travel.

Make Informed Decisions

By offering data on the environmental impact of hotel options, Roomex enables your team to make more sustainable choices for your travel needs.

Simplify Compliance

Roomex simplifies the process of gathering necessary data for compliance with CSRD and other reporting standards, reducing the administrative burden on your team.

Demonstrate Commitment

Roomex can help your business showcase your commitment to reducing your environmental impact, aligning with broader corporate sustainability goals.
